COMPLETE TABULATED VOTE OF LETCHER COUNTY PRIMARY AUGUST 1, 1925

THE PRIMARY IS OVER

For the past few weeks to casual citizens looking toward the result of the primary knew well that in the leading races the vote would be exceedingly close. Such was found to be true when the vote was all in. The closest battle between any was that of J. Mart Potter and Morgan T. Reynolds for Sheriff, the official returns giving six plurality for Mr. Reynolds. There is some talk of discrepancies in the counting of the vote in this race and it is rumored that Mr. Potter will ask for a recount of the ballots in some or all of the precincts. For hours and hours and up until the official report was announced there was some uncertainty as to who had won for Jailer, Fess Whitaker or Isaac Mitchell. The official returns, however, showed Whitaker winner by 41 votes.

Harry L. Moore defeated W. H. Blair for County Attorney by some 600 votes, Miss Amanda Gibson won for County Clerk by 193, Noah Bentley for Judge by a good plurality, Joseph M. Yonts won for Coroner. Henry Holbrook carried the county for Representative by a good vote. Kelley Fields won for Police Judge of Whitesburg.

A number of hot races for the nominations for Justices were waged in the various precincts, and usually the winners had only a few votes to spare. In the Upper Whitesburg district Henry Tackett, of Thornton, won easily over his opponents, while in the Lower Whitesburg district Hiram Ison, Jr., defeated Spencer Adams by only four votes. A. C. Spangler won the Democratic nomination in the upper ward, while Ben Caudill was declared the Democratic nominee in the lower ward. In Jenkins District No. 2 Hobert Tucker easily won over Lee Hamby and A. C. Combs, tho it is said Mr. Combs quit the race before election day. In No. 3, W. H. Adams, present Justice, won over Letcher Collins by only two votes. In No. 4, Ira Ingram is the Republican candidate, while three Democrats Alamander Whitaker, Buddy Caudill and J. E. Collins, fought it out for the nomination, Cau-dill winning with votes to spare. In the Cumberland district Wilson Creech, present Justice, was re-nominated. In Linefork district Zack Day was nominated. In No. 8, Noah Gibson, Republican, and Sandy Adams, Democrat, were nominated. Emery L. Frazier, Democrat, received 282 votes and John S. Webb 210 in the county. Dr. Fitzpatrick for County Judge, without opposition, received 539 votes, Cro C. Caudill, unopposed, 670 for County Court Clerk, and J. L. Hays for County Attorney 362. It was a three-handed race for Jailer, Riley Caudill led with 443, and Mrs. Mollie Bentley got 143 and J. B. Wright 115. For Sheriff Grant Craft won with 516 votes, to 242 for T. C. Adams and 57 for Jesse Horn. Throughout the county the Republicans were in such hot contests that almost no interest was taken by the Democrats. Just those who seemed to drop around the polls to watch the battles took occasion to go in and vote. The rise of 700 votes only were cast, whereas there might have been over 2000.

Mrs. G. H. Picklesimer was in the city Monday.

The Sewing Circle of the Woman's Club will meet at the Club Rooms Saturday at 2:30 p. m. All members of the Club urged to attend.

Miss Dixie Webb, daughter of Major Webb, left for Lexington where she will take a business course at Transylvania College.

If Leonard Stallard is defeated he will come out of the contest a hard man to curry four years from now.

Before going to the bull-hole it is said it took several pounds of tallow to grease Judge Blair so that the other defeated candidates could not use him as a pole in climbing out. The Judge is such a noble gentleman that he took it all good-naturedly.

J. G. Easter, Hazard, C. L. Back, David, J. P. Blair, Sandy Hook, Dr. G. D. Johnson, Huntington, W. Va., and T. C. Sherman, Middletown, O., send their Eagle renewals.

Ben Bentley 30, nephew of Noah Bentley, nominee for County Judge, and Sol Fleming 70, were injured in an auto wreck on Potters Fork Monday, Fleming dying soon after and Bentley is not expected to recover.

At Jenkins Sunday night Fred Shelby and another man were seriously hurt when a car in which they were driving was wrecked. Reports say neither of the men will recover.

In this issue appears the announcement of Leslie (Bud) Brown as an independent candidate for Jailer to be voted for at the November election. Bud is a son of the late Geo. W. Brown, formerly well known in this county. The family is an old one in the county and is well and favorably connected.

Reports of the non-delivery of the Eagle to subscribers are constantly reaching us and worrying us a good deal. The Eagle is made up with an automatic mailer and each name and address is carefully pasted on each paper before mailing. There is positively no hang-up or failure on our part in getting the paper into the mails. The fault is all due to the mail authorities after it leaves the postoffice here. Subscribers who fail to get the paper please write us and we will file the complaints with the postoffice department.

Dr. G. D. Johnson, formerly located at Jenkins and with a big circle of friends there, now located at Huntington, W. Va., in writing us says, "I have just returned from Europe after spending all spring and a goodly portion of the summer taking post-graduate courses in London, Paris, Liverpool, Leeds, Dublin, Belfast, Glasgow and Edinburgh hospitals. Saw some wonderful as well as good work done in medicine and surgery. I feel now much more efficient even after spending several years in the Jenkins and Fleming hospitals, and the friends I met there as well as all those loyal mountain folks I shall never forget."

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE
OF BRYAN

Nothing could more clearly demonstrate the insufficiency of language to portray the deepest sentiments of the human heart than an effort thereby to eulogize or memorialize the life's work, character, personality and power of our lamented friend, William Jennings Bryan. His life has been a literal fulfillment of the poetic prayer, "God give us men." Surely he was the most gifted child of genius who has blessed this earth since time began, and mother nature having thus so emphatically and bountifully spoken, will never again so bless the sons of men. For, however great they may be thru the dim cycles of time still there is in front of them an example to emulate, an inspiration to encourage and ennoble. His passing has left us "an aching void."

PROPER FOOD FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The age during which children are attending school may aptly be called "The Dangerous Age." It is the period of rapid growth and every care should be taken to insure the child of a normal and healthy body. The idea of eating only fit and wholesome foods should be early impressed on the younger members of every family in order to protect them against later ill health and its accompanying unhappiness. If the utmost care is not taken in the diet that is used by children, cases of food poisoning, indigestion and kindred ailments may result. And milk, being the chief item in the diets of most children, should be carefully guarded. It is, because of its nature, prone to infection if exposed to germs and may soon become unfit for use. Wherever there is the slightest reason for doubt as to its purity and food value, steps should be taken to insure the sterility and the fitness of milk intended for consumption by children. Many mothers have adopted the excellent practice of using milk that is absolutely pure and sterile and free from any germs or bacteria. The most satisfactory, as well as the safest milk used in preparing food for the growing child is evaporated milk. It is sterile, and therefore safe. It is more digestible than market milk. Its uniformity, convenience and cost are qualities that recommend it. The following dishes are well suited to the needs of the growing child; they are easily digested and very nourishing:

- Caramel Custard.
1 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1 cup water
2 tbs. sugar
2 tbs. salt
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Scald the diluted milk. Caramelize the sugar and add to milk to dissolve. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt, and vanilla, and combine with scalded milk. Pour into custard cups and set in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven. When done, a knife blade run in the center will come out clean.
- Fish Chowder.
1 pint raw fish cut in 1-inch dice
5 small potatoes, sliced
3 onions chopped fine
1/2 pound fat salt pork, sliced
3 cups boiling water
1 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1 cup water
6 crackers
Fry out the salt pork. When brown, remove pieces of pork and put fish, potatoes, and onions in Kettle. Cover with boiling water. Simmer until potatoes are tender. Add the milk and cook 5 minutes longer. Season with salt and pepper. Just before serving add the crackers.

Watch Your Diet,
Says Prima Donna

Cyrena Van Gordon, prima donna of the Chicago Opera company, believes in the proper use of her privileges. She believes in the practice of this much-discussed person in wearing no corsets, in wearing short skirts, going in for athletics and outdoor life and in thoroughly upsetting the theories and practices of her mother and grandmother. Miss Van Gordon, who is, in private life, Mrs. S. Bogart Munns, the wife of Doctor S. B. Munns, says that all of these things are woman's right and are necessary if a woman is anxious to keep her youth and beauty. But exercise is not the only thing that is necessary for the woman who is desirous of being attractive. She must watch her diet and be careful not to eat anything that will, in any way, be fattening.

There are certain dishes to which Miss Van Gordon is partial and to which she gives the credit for the retention of her beauty. These dishes, she prefers to prepare herself and, when on tour with the Chicago Opera company, she carries a small electric stove in order that she will not be deprived of the food she deems necessary. These dishes are easily prepared. Miss Van Gordon uses for

- Celery and Cheese Casserole.
1 cup cheese
1 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup evaporated milk
2 tbs. water
1 tbs. butter
1 cup cooked spaghetti
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs
1/2 tsp. salt
She makes white sauce of milk, water, butter, flour, and salt, and mixes it with all ingredients except crumbs. She then places it in an oiled baking dish and covers with crumbs, baking in a moderate oven until brown.
- Chicken a la King.
3 cups cold chicken, diced
3 tbs. butter
1/2 lb. mushrooms
1 cup chicken broth
1/2 green pepper, shredded
1 egg yolk
1/2 pimento, shredded
Salt and pepper
Cook the peppers (also mushrooms, if they are used) in the butter for 15 minutes, keeping them covered while cooking slowly. Add the flour and seasonings, also the milk and broth. Stir to a smooth sauce. Put chicken in sauce to heat, and just before serving, stir in beaten egg yolk. Cook in double boiler to prevent curdling.

Dad Knows

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne
"Experience is what you need; Get out and see the world!" When such unsound advice they heed So many boys are hurled Defenseless into problems where They have small chance to win; Discouragement awaits them there Before they well begin.

They ought to "see the world," oh yes, But not before they know Beyond a childish whim or guess Where it is wise to go. Boys guided by a father's hand Thru early manhood days Will sooner learn to understand Life's many doubtful ways.

Experience they need, and so I hope they'll talk with Dad And let him counsel when to go And where; he'll be so glad That his boys ask for his advice. And time will demonstrate His friendly "tips" are worth the price; Dad knows what makes men great!

STALLARD'S LINIMENT

H. B. STALLARD, OF WISE, VIRGINIA, HAS discovered a medicine that cured himself of rheumatism and is relieving and curing others. If you have rheumatism, kidney or bladder trouble, doesn't matter what you have tried or what your doctor has said about your case, write to STALLARD & SON, WISE, VA., and get a treatment. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Wise, Va., MAY 1, 1924.

MR. STALLARD,
Dear Sir—I am glad to say I have been using your medicine for fifteen or eighteen nights, bathing regularly once a day. I have not been using it as you directed, but I am glad to say it has done me more good than any medicine I have ever used. I have been suffering from rheumatism for about five or six years, but never have found any relief until I began using your medicine. I have been on crutches and a cane all this time but I am glad to say I can go without them now and can sleep as good as a baby at night. My home doctor did all he could but did me no good only present relief. I had been like a man drowning, catching to every straw that passed. I have sent for every advertisement I ever found but found no relief until now and I cannot recommend your medicine as high as I want to.

You can use my name in your advertisement if you wish.

Wise, Va., SEPT. 20, 1924.

MR. H. B. STALLARD,
Dear Sir—Since writing you last I have continued to use your medicine and have found it to be better than you recommend it to be. I am now about well of rheumatism. My right knee was stiff as you know and had a large callous on it. It is now limber and the callous is gone. I can now put my hands to my head, which I had not done for 3 or 4 years without help and I am spreading the good news to others as have gone to some who were suffering with rheumatism and have seen wonderful results brought with your liniment. I wish all sufferers knew your liniment as I do.
J. E. MOLES.

BURDINE, KY., APRIL 18, 1925.

MR. H. B. STALLARD, WISE, VA.
Dear Sir—I have been suffering for two months with my side. The doctor said I had kidney trouble and was in the hospital and could hardly walk straight at times. A friend of mine gave me a bottle of Stallard's Liniment and after using three bottles I feel completely cured. I do not suffer any pain at all and am working every day. I hope all other sufferers may try Stallard's Liniment, and I believe it will do them as much good as it has me.
LEE A. HAMBY.

"It's a glass eye, miss," responded the man civilly. "The only way it can look is fixedly. But poke it if you like."

Count the Smiles

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

It matters not how many years
Of life I chance to see;
It matters not what unknown fate
The future holds for me—
It matters not, if every day
I find some task to do
That sows the seeds of happiness
Where pain or heartache grew.

We should not measure life alone
By checking off the miles,
But while we live our little day
Let's count the friendly smiles
That mark our path, and let's be so
Considerate and kind
That love will shed its radiance
On those we leave behind.

PRIMARY FACTORS AFFECTING FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES OF THE FARMER.

Forty-two per cent of the farmers in the United States blame their financial difficulties on the low prices of farm products, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, which has completed a study of the primary factors affecting the financial difficulties of the farmer based on a survey made by the United States Department of Agriculture. Seventeen per cent of the farmers feel that high taxes are the direct cause of the farm depression, eleven per cent blame the high costs for farm labor, ten per cent feel that high freight rates are responsible, ten per cent blame the high interest, six per cent credit the depression to reckless expenditures during boom period, and four per cent think it was too much credit.

An inquiry made by the Department of Agriculture through both bankers and farmers shows that on an average 5 per cent of the farm owners in 15 corn and wheat-producing states lost their farms through foreclosure or bankruptcy during the late depression. Four and a half per cent more had turned over their farms to creditors without legal process, making a total of about 9.5 per cent who had lost their farms with or without legal proceedings. An additional 15 per cent were really bankrupt, but were holding on through the leniency of their creditors. By groups of states the percentage of owners farmers who lost their farms since 1920 were as follows: Five East North Central states, nearly 6 per cent; seven North Central states, over 9 per cent; and for the three Mountain states nearly 20 per cent. The percentage of tenants who lost their property ran materially higher.

Records of the Department of Justice indicate that in the pre-war years, 5 per cent of all the bankruptcy cases were farmers. During the deflation 14 per cent of all bankruptcy cases were farmers. In some of these states where in pre-war years the farmer bankruptcy cases represented about 7 per cent of all such cases, this percentage in 1922 had risen to nearly 30 per cent.

These losses have not been due to inefficiency on the part of the farmers, points out the Agricultural Foundation, as practically all of them were incurred by men who had been doing fairly well until they entered the period of drastic deflation.

Junior Farmers Need Club Leaders

GROWTH OF BOYS AND GIRLS AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

That club leadership must be increased properly to train the boys and girls of the nation who decide to remain on farms and become the bulwark of American agriculture is shown in a survey of the club work of the junior farmers just completed by Benjamin H. Darrow, director of the boys' and girls' club work of the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation.

According to the report of the Foundation, based on a count by the Department of Agriculture, 722,408 projects were begun in 1923 by 459,074 boys and girls, a number which is less than 6 per cent of the farm youth of the nation of club age. Of these projects 429,746 were completed by 249,416 club members. Girls completing their work outnumber the boys three to two, there being 159,194 girls and 90,222 boys. The report also indicates that 55.6 per cent of the enrolled girls finished their projects, while only 32.9 per cent of the boys completed theirs. The high point reached in 1918, as shown by the accompanying chart, was due to the expansion of club work in connection with the slogan of the day: "Food will win the war." After the crisis was over there was retrenchment and club work suffered.

"Many of the 8,000,000 boys and girls engaged in club work hope to leave the farm," said Darrow, "but 80 per cent of them will remain in the country, experience has shown. All who stay on the farm should have the benefit of the inspiration and training club work affords. If we are to provide this for the junior farmers of the nation, we must rapidly increase the number of county club leaders."

Girl Workers Safeguarded From Weather Ills By Plant For Drying Damp Garments

ARE DRIED

What might have been years ago considered "just another new-fangled idea" has definitely taken its place in the equipment of at least one large business organization and increased efficiency through the simple expedient of keeping women workers in dry clothing and shoes. Employees of the Prudential Insurance Company's home office, at Newark, N. J. never have to work through the day in wet garments or damp foot wear. If they are caught in a storm they report the fact immediately upon arriving at the office and are furnished with dry slippers and a fresh outer garment. Their wet clothes are placed in a new steam dryer, where in a short time they are made fit to wear again. The medical division estimates that the per centage of illness resulting from exposure has been reduced to a minimum through this precaution. In addition there is never the usual slump in energy among the employees and the consequent reduction of production so often noticeable in offices when people are trying to work in a physically uncomfortable condition. As there are more than 3,000 women of virtually all ages and all heights employed at the Prudential home office the welfare division has to keep on hand a stock of slippers and shirts in a full range of sizes.

Kentucky's Economic Welfare Is Largely Dependent On COAL

Don't get the impression that the coal-mine operators and their thousands of employees in Kentucky are the only people interested in the success or failure of this great business. Every county—every community—every citizen of the State—is directly affected by the prosperity of the coal industry.

Consider these facts:—First, that the great sums of money per year are paid in taxes by the coal-mine operators of Kentucky, and by individuals and business directly dependent on the coal industry for their support. These funds go into the public treasury for the support of State institutions, the maintenance of schools, the building of roads, streets, etc. You, as a citizen of Kentucky, share in the community prosperity and comforts which are largely paid for by coal taxes and coal wages.

In order to pay these taxes—and to give well-rewarded employment to 60,000 citizens of Kentucky—the mine owners must market their product at a profit—and nine-tenths of their output must be sold outside of Kentucky. (Kentucky consumes but four million tons of coal per year, whereas the present annual output of Kentucky mines is about forty-five million tons).

Shorter hauls and lower freight rates make it hard for Kentucky operators to meet the prices quoted in Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio fields; or in Tennessee and other competing fields in the South. Any special taxes put on Kentucky coals will so increase production costs that the mine owners of this State will not be able to get sufficient orders to take care of their output. Curtailed business or lessened tonnage means insolvency for the mineowners and idleness for thousands of workers.

It establishes Oakland even more firmly than ever as the outstanding leader in advanced engineering.

~ and New Prices ~$70 to $350 lower Oakland's much lower prices would of themselves make this announcement one of the most important of the year. ## A WORD OF THANKS

To the Voters of Letcher Co.:

The returns of the election show that I have been honored with the Republican nomination for County Judge. Language falls when I attempt to express my appreciation of this honor. With deep appreciation myself and family will hold in lasting remembrance those who stood by us. For those who stood loyal to each of my opponents I have no ill feelings or word of censure and only hope when you know me better you will have no reason to regret that a hard-working man should have this nomination. By a few votes over each of my opponents I have secured this nomination. I hope to retain the good will of each of my opponents and to gain the respect and confidence of their many loyal friends. With a willing heart and a helping hand I shall endeavor to labor for Letcher county, for her people and for her welfare. Thanking one and all for every kindness and help shown me, I remain,

Yours very truly,
Noah Bentley

JUST A WORD

To the Voters of Letcher Co.:

The primary is over and I desire to take this method of thanking every one who by word, act or deed supported me in my successful race for the Republican nomination for County Court Clerk.

I made this race without money and upon my own merits. I feel like that not only the voters, but even my opponents, know that I treated them both with the utmost kindness and respect and that I at no time stooped or permitted my friends to stoop to anything that was not dignified or right.

According to the official count of the canvassing board my majority is 108 votes over my closest opponent. I consider this not merely a personal triumph but a victory and vindication for the good women of our county. We women did not ask for much representation, and the good men and the good women have graciously given us all we asked.

Again I thank one and all for their support and hope and appeal to one and all, regardless of political affiliation, for your support to the end that I may be finally elected as your County Court Clerk.

I pledge you honest service, fair treatment, safe and secure management, and every accommodation at my command, in the event I am elected your servant. In the meantime, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,
Amanda Gibson.

BADLY HURT

At his home while gathering apples a few days ago near the city, Emmett Duncan, a well known carpenter and good citizen, fell from an apple tree and dangerously injured himself. Both arms were broken and he is said to be seriously internally injured. He is a son of Bob Duncan and is a man with a family.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR JAILER

To the People of Letcher Co.: Regardless of who is nominated by the Republicans and Democrats, I hereby announce myself an independent candidate for Jailer of Letcher county. I was born in your county and am 53 years of age. I have always been an independent Republican, reserving to myself the right to vote for the best men in either party. Therefore, I am going to ask all the voters to exercise that right for me. I tell you now if I am elected in November I will make you a straight, honest and efficient officer. Later I will have more to say to myself to my relatives and friends. I will thank all to remember this and get ready to help me.

Leslie (Bud) Brown.
Dec. Aug. 1, 1925.

In Knott county a hot campaign was waged. Ernest Moore was nominated by the Democrats for Judge, John Sturgill won for County Court Clerk to succeed himself, Adam Campbell won for County Attorney, and Farris Hays for Sheriff. The race for Jailer is reported close with the chances favoring Peyton Ritchie over Harlan Watts. Lee Hall is the nominee for Tax Commissioner without opposition and W. R. Smith, son of Carew, is the nominee for Representative. Lum Bates made a hot but losing fight for County Judge.

CARD OF THANKS

To the Voters of Letcher Co.:

I take this method of thanking you for the very substantial support given me in the primary election just past. I fully realized when I entered this race that someone would lose, and I fully made up my mind that if I was the man to be defeated, I would be man enough to smile, shake my opponent's hand in real friendship, and give him my heartiest support in the coming November election.

I have no hard thoughts against anyone; even those who fought me hardest, I cannot but admire them for their scrapping qualities. I want to ask all my opponents and their friends to consider the matter and not get mad at me for winning the nomination for Sheriff, for we all belong to the same race of people—as good a race as can be found in all the world—and that as American citizens we all have the same rights and privileges, and when we ask the people for their suffrage we should be willing to let their decision be final.

To my many friends who stood so loyally by me, I assure you that so long as I live I will never forget the support rendered me, and so long as I live I will hold in sacred memory these services, and in the future whenever I can be of service to you or your families, you need never to hesitate to call on me for a return of these favors, if your requests be in the bounds of reason and honor.

I hope that I have given no one cause for offense during this campaign. I entered the race with the full determination to "sling no mud" and present my claims in as honest a manner as possible. I had many obstacles to contend with which I was not in the least responsible for, but taking it all in all I am well satisfied.

No amount of money could purchase the vote of confidence given me on August 1, and I want to say to all the people of Letcher county, both Democrats and Republicans, that if you elect me Sheriff in November I will meet every obligation of this office with honest courage and faithfulness, and I am sure that all the people, when my term is over, will say, "Well done, faithful servant!"

My purpose will be to not specialize in any one class of law violation, but to do my duty in a firm, honest, conscientious manner, fully respecting the rights of others and endeavoring to help in every possible manner to make this a better county in which to live and raise our children.

Again thanking all for your efforts in my behalf, and wishing you and your families the best of health, I remain,

Your obedient servant,
Morgan T. Reynolds.

My Boys

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

"You talk so much about our boys you'll bore those folks to death," She says, and then as if I didn't hear And womanlike, she drives it home, "You hardly pause for breath; Nobody else can speak a word, my dear."

I talk too much about my boys! I bother friends who call With stories of the clever things they say; I "spoil the party," whether it's a dinner or a ball, Because I tell about the games they play!

If this be true, how pitiful the lives my neighbors live, How far removed from their Creator's plan; Not half of the enjoyment can their petty pleasures give That romping with a troupe of youngsters can.

And so I talk about my boys, because they mean to me Embodiment of youth's abiding cheer; So long as children keep my spirit young and fancy free I have no dread that drab old age is near.

A Worthy Heritage

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

If I can help my boys to learn One fact my father taught to me Some day their gratitude I'll earn; I want their heritage to be, Above all else that fortune brings, An understanding of this law: That men may rise to greater things Some one must grapple with the raw!

What do I mean? The answer's here: All comforts come from work alone; I want my boys with ready cheer To claim the right to win their own! They must not be content to take, What I may hold of wealth or fame, But fortified with humble stake Let them add honor to the name.

Of such a breed were those who carved This nation from the wilderness, Who fought and froze and bled and starved To prove their title to success; Of such a breed must be the men Who brave each hazardous frontier— Lord, stimulate boys' hearts again With eagerness to pioneer!

Here's New Brain Teaser

Probably because it furnishes a high grade mental exercise as well as an interesting amusement, the crossword puzzle is more popular today throughout the United States than it ever has been.

Publications like the New York World and Liberty Magazine thought the puzzle's popularity was beginning to fade a couple of months ago and quit printing them. But the editors received so many kicks from subscribers that they had to take up the feature again and hire experts to devise some new forms of the brain teaser.

Most popular of the new ones is the circle crossword puzzle with a limited number of words from which to choose. Elsewhere in this issue of the paper is an advertisement of the National Sales Company of Louisville, describing the new mind exerciser and offering cash prizes totaling $3,750.00 to persons who can solve the puzzle.

Jersey City, N. J.—Mr. George M. Downs writes:—"When I was a trapeze performer traveling with the circus I contracted severe stomach trouble and nervous breakdown. The doctor advised operation immediately, but I was afraid of operations and put it off. A friend suggested I try Tut's Pills. He having used them for years. After the first dose I began to feel better and would not be without them. I feel as young and full of vigor as I did when I joined the circus." At all drugists.
